Hello fellow techie women!
Here is the newsletter for the week of November 10th.

WESiT Research Salon TOMORROW!!
The Research Committee would like to invite you to attend our WESiT Student Salon. This is a great opportunity to hear about the research being done by your fellow WESiT members. This month, we have three great speakers from Entrepreneurship, Health Informatics, and Education. These research talks allow students to share their research in an informal environment, and provide opportunities for them to practice for presentations or job talks, share ideas, and/or to gain feedback. Potbelly's will be provided! You can read the abstracts of our presenters HERE. If you're interested in presenting at future talks, email Research Committee Chair Christine Hsieh at chjhsieh@indiana.edu, or fill out THIS FORM.
