NEW Attention PhD Students: CEWiT is now seeking a teaching assistant for our new REUW Course!
CEWiT is launching our Emerging Scholars REUW program, and we’re looking for a PhD student to serve as a teaching assistant for our required REUW seminar course, taught by Dr. Kelly Berkson from Linguistics. The seminar course, COLL X-292, is a 2-credit course that will focus on continuing to develop research skills, project planning, giving elevator speeches and project progress reports, asking critical questions, designing and critiquing posters, and more. Applicants who have experience mentoring undergraduates or have participated in undergraduate research are desired. The chosen candidate will receive a $1500 stipend for the spring semester for this position. Interested candidates should send a CV and cover letter to Julianne Martin, CEWiT Assistant Program Manager, at juljumar@indiana.edu by Wednesday, December 3rd.
